Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Holly S. Rosensteel is dedicated to the investment advisory activities of TAN's clients. Holly S. Rosensteel does not have any other business activities.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Holly S. Rosensteel is dedicated to the investment advisory activities of TAN's Clients. Holly S. Rosensteel does not receive any additional forms of compensation.

Advisory Persons may, from time to time, receive additional compensation or other economic benefits, such as, salesawards (cash and non-cash), recruiting and training support services, expense reimbursement, software, bonuses or non-cash compensation (e.g., attend sales conferences and other recognition events) for providing investment advisory products or services.

Advisory Persons may be eligible to receive compensation for referring individuals who become Advisory Persons ofTAN. The compensation paid to the referring Advisory Persons is based on the referred individuals becoming Advisory Persons of TAN and revenue from investment advisory fees earned by them.

Thrivent Financial for Lutherans may provide a cash bonus or other economic benefit to Advisory Persons based on the number of new clients that purchase certain eligible products and services, including advisory products and services. This additional compensation is based on the number of Holly S. Rosensteel 's new clients who become members of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans because the clients bought a membership-eligible product, retentionof assets, and or their sales volume of specific products and services

Advisory Persons may receive non-cash compensation from an unaffiliated third-party (i.e., professional service provider) for client referrals. The non-cash compensation arrangement is a mutual understanding of a cross-referral relationship between a financial advisor and an unaffiliated third-party.

Thrivent Trust Company pays Advisory Persons a fee for referring clients to them for professional personal trust, estate and investment management services except when the Advisory Person provides advisory services to the referred client's assets.

Advisory Persons who facilitate gifts to Thrivent Charitable Impact & Investing® (Thrivent Charitable) may be eligible to receive non-cash compensation (e.g., public recognition and funding to co-host an event). Receipt of non-cash compensation is based on the specific threshold of gifts facilitated during the year and/or the Advisory Person's career with TAN. Thrivent Charitable is not affiliated with TAN and Advisory Persons.

Thrivent Financial for Lutherans pays Advisory Persons for their work in bringing donor gifts to Thrivent Charitable to the extent these donor gifts are invested in a donor-advised fund available through Thrivent Charitable. This fee does not increase the cost of the product to you. Advisory Persons who provide investment management services to Thrivent Charitable for the referred client will not receive a referral fee in addition to the advisory fee.

Item 6 – Supervision

Holly S. Rosensteel serves as a Client Relationship Manager of Advent Partners a d/b/a of TAN and is supervised by David Belotte, the Chief Compliance Officer. Mr. Belotte can be reached at (612) 844-8444.

TAN has implemented a Code of Ethics, an internal compliance document that guides each Supervised Person in meeting their fiduciary obligations to Clients of TAN. TAN has developed policies and procedures to supervise its investment advisory programs and services. This includes, among other things, the initial and ongoing review of certain types of account activity, or lack thereof, the types of securities being purchased or sold, the share class of mutual fund holdings, the account holdings relative to clients' financial status and investment objectives and monitoring of recommendations to clients.
